The development is located in the area of El Campanario, in the heart of the New Golden Mile, reflecting the luxury lifestyle on the Costa del Sol.

Estepona is a charming village where the traditional Andalusian architecture of the old town combines with modern design of the developments on the outskirts of the town. This enchanting place is gaining more and more admirers over time among those looking for their dream home.

The development is the epitome of the luxury characteristic of the area, combining modern design and picturesque scenery.

The villas have been functionally designed with attention to detail. Each home features 4 en-suite bedrooms, fully equipped kitchens and bathrooms, spacious interiors filled with natural light and private gardens and terraces. In the communal areas, residents will be able to enjoy facilities including panoramic swimming pool and a fitness area.

The exclusivity of the complex is not its only attribute. Not to be forgotten is its privileged location, which will not only be appreciated by golf lovers. Just a few minutes' by car in addition to renowned golf courses, bustling towns like Estepona and Marbella are located. Not to be forgotten either is the proximity to sandy beaches and a wide range of shopping and dining facilities.

This urbanisation certainly captures the charm of the Costa del Sol, this is where you are sure to find the home of your dreams.
