A unique residential project is being developed in one of the most prestigious districts of Malaga, on the eastern hills of the city. This is a place where luxury meets nature – the residences are situated on a hill with panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea, surrounded by fragrant pine forests, away from the city bustle, yet just a few minutes from the vibrant city center.

The inspiration for this investment comes from the history of Malaga in the 18th and 19th centuries, when the city flourished thanks to the vision of several wealthy families who transformed it into a center of culture, elegance, and prosperity. The project is a tribute to their legacy – a new definition of luxury, aimed at those who expect only the best.

The intimate complex will consist of only twelve residences, each designed with maximum comfort, privacy, and harmony with the surroundings in mind. The architecture of the buildings subtly blends into the landscape, creating a dialogue between nature and modern form. Thoughtful layouts, panoramic glazing, seamless transitions between interiors and terraces, as well as optimal lighting and ventilation, make each apartment a true work of functional art. The apartments will be equipped with the latest Intelligent Home technologies.

The interiors impress with spaciousness and carefully selected materials: noble stone, high-quality wood, and metal combine in harmonious unity, creating a unique atmosphere. The kitchens will be equipped with high class Gaggenau appliances. Every detail has been perfected by a team of the best architects, designers, and specialists who have refined every element of this investment over the years.

This is a place for those who value peace, security, the highest quality of workmanship, and proximity to nature, without giving up the comforts and attractions of a big city. A new standard of luxury on the map of Malaga – for those who want to live exceptionally.
