This innovative concept, which is a perfect match of elegance, luxury, natural elements, is a project by the well-known architect Pablo Villaroel. The combination of modern design and natural finishing elements perfectly emphasises its exclusive character. The whole is complemented by open space, light, tranquillity and the surrounding nature.

The development will comprise a total of 19 flats distributed in 3 low-rise buildings. Ground-floor units with gardens and private pools, spacious first-floor flats with large terraces and luxurious top-floor penthouses with private pools and spacious roof terraces.

Real de La Quinta, is a luxury enclave at the foot of the Sierra de las Nieves mountain range. The panoramic views of the sea and mountains are absolutely breathtaking from here. With an innovative and carefully arranged infrastructure including hotel, restaurants, shops, golf courses and golf academy, wellness centre, equestrian centre and Lake Club, you will be able to enjoy all the local amenities at their best. While not forgetting the rich cuisine and leisure experiences offered by nearby Marbella and Puerto Banús, both just a 15-minute drive by car.

Each suite comes with at least two parking spaces and a storage room.
